Here is what you can do with these articles:

- [YES] Can be used as content on your website
- [YES] Can be sold
- [YES] Can be given away
- [YES] Can be packaged
- [YES] Can be offered as a bonus
- [YES] Can be added to membership sites
- [YES] Can be edited completely and your name put on them

The articles have been written around keyword phrases and the title of the TXT file is the keyword phrase in each case. The keyword phrase is also used in the first and last sentences of the articles for SEO purposes. If you are using the articles on your website, it is a good idea to give each article a unique title. Keep the keyword in the title, or if you decide to change the keyword, change it in the first and last sentences of the article too. You can edit the articles for your website any way that you wish.

If you want to submit these articles to article directories you will need to rewrite them first. Article directories do not want to have duplicate content on their sites so they are likely to reject PLR articles or even ban you.

Please do not use my name on the articles. They are yours now!
